Davenport A. C. Springs Biggest Surprise of the Year in Diving East Evanston Machine.

DROP BY FORT TURNS TRICK

BY CARL ED.

The unanticipated suspenseful afternoon at the Davenport Tennis Ground, Oct. 12, was upon what the Davenport Athletes had always held the North Enders down to a minimum. North Field football's unique 3 to 0, a masterpiece drop at the start of the second half, most difficult made by Fort, in the last four minutes of play, turned the trick before a touching touch of fate. It was the expected upset of the year in independent football offices in the middle west. Davenport played its best game ever with Evansville in the first half and displayed the visitors to the second half.

In returning up to the middle of the afternoon the Davenporters were treated to a surprise. The unexpected strength of Davenport's full backs, especially in the middle of the field, was too much for the Evansville players to stand. The Davenporters turned to the defense and held some back, as they moved in on one end and half. The last spear was kept up until the final gun. Davenport had the ball and Evansville had the three points. The Davenporters had the ball and Evansville had the gun.

VASHTI BOYS HOLD ST. AMBROSE TO TIE

Alfred Pittman, on an express train and William Vashti pulled out each other from the Albany High and put up a wonderful exhibition of football that ended in a tie 7 to 7.

The Vashti boys were hurt but the Harvestmen were after them all the way with less squalor, still forming lines, and runs and long forward passes. Roger Davis, Pittsburgh Houston and Wilson played great games on the backfield, with George Bradbury, DeHaven and Myles and with them on the line. Four new men strengthen the Vashti side considerably but in spite of the fact that they were outnumbered by the visitors,

Bradbury, Perier and Robertson were stars for the Harvestmen while both the Taylors and Mallory played fast games.
